THE '44 LANTHORN
PUBLISHED BY THE JUNIOR CLASS OF SUSQUEHANNA UNIVERSITY

PRESENTING LIFE AT SUSQUEHANNA

DURING A YEAR OF WORLD STRIFE ★

DEDICATION

*M*EN AND WOMEN of every era have been called upon to sacrifice home, friends, and even self to fight their nations' battles. Our generation has been no exception. Therefore, we, the class of 1944, hoping in some small way to honor their valor, dedicate this LANTHORN to all those Susquehannans who have gone forth to serve their country in this hour of conflict.

I saw the spires of Oxford
As I was passing by,
The grey spires of Oxford
Against a pearl-grey sky;
My heart was with the Oxford men
Who went abroad to die.

The years go fast in Oxford,
The golden years and gay;
The hoary colleges look down
On careless boys at play,
But when the bugles sounded—War!
They put their games away.

The cricket field, the quad,
The shaven lawns of Oxford
To seek a bloody sod.
They gave their merry youth away
For country and for God.

God rest you, happy gentlemen,
Who laid your good lives down,
Who took the khaki and the gun
Instead of cap and gown.
God bring you to a fairer place
Than even Oxford town.

—W. M. LETTS.

★ IN TRIBUTE TO THOSE MEN AND WOMEN
IN THE SERVICE OF OUR COUNTRY

FOREWORD

THE 1944 LANTHORN Staff, in this year of conflict and inconstancy has chosen as its theme that which is symbolical of all that is strength and durability—Rocks—both chiseled by the skilled hand of the artist, and worn by the incessant toils of Nature. In particular, the Founder's Cross is to Susquehanna the chief corner-stone, a symbol of that Rock "in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth."

SINCE our arrival on the campus in the fall of 1939 as happy and, perhaps, irresponsible youngsters, a great many things of importance have happened to us, socially, intellectually, and spiritually.

Each year, as it came, we thought would be our most memorable one. As freshmen, we were sure that nothing could surpass the fun of "get-aways" and hazing and all that goes with being a first-year student. A year later, we thrilled ourselves and the rest of the campus with our Sophomore Hop—the popular Snowball Dance. In addition, we made the freshmen aware of our superiority and flattered ourselves that we were the Class-Most-Likely-to-Succeed.

Last year, as juniors, we took up first aid and home nursing and became air raid wardens and learned to knit, confident, however, that the war was a remote thing, hardly touching us. And in our spare time we produced a really fine LANTHORN and a successful Prom.

We know now that our senior year is the one we can never forget. The realization that we are soon to leave this campus and these friends, perhaps forever, to make our separate ways in an uncertain and turbulent world has made each experience something that will be treasured.

The arrival of men for military training right on our own campus and the departure of many of our own students for the armed services have awakened us to the necessity of unselfish service—the service which Susquehanna has been giving for so many years that it has become a part of the tradition which is our heritage.

Junior Class History

WITH but nineteen left of the one hundred and five freshmen who viewed Susquehanna as their college on September 9, 1940, we of the Class of 1944 are both proud and sad.

We fill with pride at the thought that most of those who were in our Freshman Class are now wearing the uniform of our country which makes it possible for institutions as fine as Susquehanna to exist.

On the other hand, we are sad because they are not sharing the joys of college life with us. Of course they wanted to finish their college career the same as we who remain hope to do, but we are sure they are doing a fine job where they are, and though no longer with us, they are not forgotten.

Our years at Susquehanna have been, as they should be, ones we shall never forget.

To begin with, our freshman "get-away" was successful under the leadership of James Wert, president; Rena Baker, vice president; Jean Buffington, secretary; and Lois Kramer, treasurer. Before the joy of that event had died down, we found ourselves the victors in the annual Soph-Frosh football game.

During our sophomore year, the freshmen were shown the art of initiation and were handed a 6-0 defeat in the traditional football game in return for their successful "get-away." Outstanding this year was our Sophomore Hop through which we proved that everyone can have a good time at what had once been an elaborate affair and still fall in line with the war spirit by having hand-made programs and no decorations. Our second year officers were: Herman Stuempfle, president; Robert Hunter, vice president; Jean Buffington, secretary; and William Janson, treasurer.

And now in our junior year with nineteen of the original class and with the addition of a few others, we hope to finish our college days with continued significant contributions to the scholastic and athletic fields as well as to the general well-being of our much-loved school. Heading our class are: Ralph Brown, Frank Attinger, Jean Harris, and John Leach. This spring we were host to the school in a very successful Junior Prom.

May you enjoy reading our edition of the LANTHORN. With it we hand you our promise to do all we can to uphold the high standards Susquehanna has taught us to appreciate.

WE RETURNED to the campus, an astute group of enlightened individuals in September, 1942, having completely lost any vestiges of the neophytic tendencies exhibited the previous year.

At the outset, it was evident that the exigencies of the war would cause changes calling forth the utmost of our abilities in adapting ourselves thereto. We therefore set forth upon the second leg of our collegiate adventure, imbued with the conviction that we would carry on despite adverse circumstances.

Our immediate concern—and sacred heritage, the orientation of the lowly frosh, we pursued with exacting precision. However, even this, an age old tradition, was overshadowed by the greatness of the task that lay before us—the task of preparing ourselves to meet the gigantic problems of the post-war world, which we knew would fall upon us as college graduates.

The atmosphere of austerity, however, was broken from time to time by the fulfillment of a somewhat restricted social calendar. The occurrence, in late fall, of our Soph Hop, started the ball rolling. It was generally pronounced a social if not a financial success.

Though we lost students to the armed services at intermittent intervals, the real blow came on February 13. At that time, with the induction of the Enlisted Reserve, we witnessed the departure of many of our classmates—classmates whom we had learned to care for deeply over the period of two years. Others will undoubtedly leave in the future. Be that as it may, we who remain pledge ourselves to ceaseless effort, looking forward to the day when once again we shall be reunited.

SEPTEMBER FOURTEENTH dawned bright and clear as ninety-three "fit for the kill" freshmen began their college careers together as the "Class of '46". Orientation activities, placement exams, and registration proceedings preceded the formal opening of the college year on Thursday, September seventeenth. On that day began the hardships of all frosh—classes and hazing. In spite of the chatter of the much respected upper-classmen, these hardships were not so bad as had been anticipated, and ere long the pajama parade and backwards-inside-out day were only dim memories. The freshman getaway was a failure in that the prexy was caught by the vigilant sophs, but it was a decided success in the stimulation of the spirit of '46. This spirit has exemplified itself throughout the year in many ways.

It was this spirit that carried the frosh to the undisputed winning of the inter-class football crown by defeating the sophs on Homecoming Day and by defeating the juniors in the same manner a few days later. This same spirit caused the freshmen to do their bit in extra-curricular activities of the school such as sports, music, and dramatics. In studies, too, the freshman spirit was found bringing up the curves and stealing scholastic honors. About the middle of the year the band of freshmen became separated in body. Many fellows left for the armed forces to do their duties for Uncle Sam. Though the war separated this class in body, in spirit the class shall always remain as one, ever true and honest, speaking of the glories of S. U. through the "Spirit of '46".

WILLIAM JANSON
President of Social Chairmen

The Fraternity Senate is made up of the presidents of the social fraternities, their faculty advisers, and Dean Galt as chairman. It was reorganized in 1939 to serve as a governing body instead of an inter-fraternity council, and is now a link between the college administration and the fraternities. The Senate now determines the number of pledges each fraternity may take from each class, the dates for the rushing season, and general rushing regulations. The organization of the Senate was easily adapted to include inter-fraternity social events. The decreasing number of fraternity men has fostered more inter-fraternity dances. The president of the social chairmen is systematically chosen from the senators. The presidency rotates among the fraternities each year. The Fraternity Senate, by a democratic approach, has done much to relieve any strained relationships among its members and to create a better understanding of their problems.

 Standing—Cox, Harris, Dr. Lumpkins, Wolfe, Bemiller, Lyons.

Inter-Sorority Council

The Inter-Sorority Council is composed of the three presidents, of the three vice presidents, and one other member of each sorority chosen by her president. The dean of women is the faculty adviser.

The purpose of the organization is to establish a more co-operative attitude among the three sororities on the campus. All policies concerning freshman rushing are under the jurisdiction of the council. The group meets once a month at which time they determine policies for regulating freshman rushing, and make plans for teas, hikes, and any other activities which may be an integral part of the rush program. Several dances are sponsored annually by the Inter-Sorority Council.

The Men's Student Council, whose membership equally represents each of the three fraternities and the non-fraternity men, was subject to a year of reorganization. In the fall, by directly appointing the Sophomore Tribunal, a more strict supervision was kept over freshman initiation policies. During the winter the Student Council Constitution was re-written in order to fill more adequately the present campus demands. Later in the year, a public address system, complete with record player and recorder, was purchased with the money collected for a memorial to the undefeated football team of 1940.

 Standing—Dubendorf, Klieck, Kramer, Basehoar, McCorkill, Cox.

Women's Student Council

The usual program of orientation for freshman women sponsored by the council was carefully executed.

With the Homecoming, Anniversary, and Parents' Day celebrations all falling upon the same week-end, council joined with the men in the preparation of the program.

Precedent was established in the election of a Homecoming Queen, Doris Haggerty, junior, who officiated at the award ceremony of the plaque for decorations to Theta Chi fraternity. The traditional tea was held for the parents in Seibert in the early afternoon before the game.

As a seasonal activity, the members sponsored a room adjacent to the basement social rooms for the use of non-sorority girls during the week and for the entertainment of out-of-town visitors over week-ends. With the determined and keen assistance of the faculty adviser, Dr. Josephine Lumpkins, the Council realized its annual anticipated plans.

The activity of the year was a record dance held in the spring in the Alumni gymnasium with the resident air cadets as invited guests.

This year the programs of the campus' honor society were in keeping with the purpose of Pi Gamma Mu, attempting to stimulate profound consideration of current social events.

According to custom, the monthly meetings were held in the homes of faculty members and several times in the Seibert Hall social rooms.

Interesting round table discussions resulted after the presentation of the various main addresses of the evenings. Particularly fascinating was the subject of the American-Japanese citizens and their status in the United States at present.

A native of the South American country of Colombia and an exchange student, Alfonso Rodriguez, spoke on the contemporary social, economic, and political conditions extant in Colombia.

Dr. Josephine Lumpkins' paper on Texas' Negro Problem was read at one of the meetings and some excellent views were shown at another.

The annual banquet was held in May with the Reverend Raymond D. Wood, of Zion Lutheran Church, Sunbury, as speaker.

 Standing—Levy, Stone, Gehnett, Hagy, Brizman.

Debating Society

Susquehanna's Debating Society, for preparatory work, held several practice debates on the subject, "The Establishment of a Federal Union by the United Nations." Two teams attended a debate tournament at Shippensburg State Teachers College, February 20, and won five out of six debates. The affirmative team was Houtz and Stone; the negative team was Hagy and Coryell. The society was also represented at the Pennsylvania State Debaters' Convention held at State College, March 19 and 20, and a debate was broadcast over WKOK.

DOROTHY DELLECKER

The Women's Judiciary Committee is composed of two representatives of each sorority. The dean of women and the president of the Women's Student Council help to guide the activities of this group. The purpose of this committee is to carry out efficiently the rules set forth by the Women's Student Council. The work of this organization has proved very successful in achieving a more harmonious and co-operative dormitory spirit.

 Standing—Renfer, Jenkins.

Vice President's Council

The Vice Presidents' Council, organized to help keep Seibert Hall in a state of silence, has at its head a house president who is elected by the Student Council, and she, in turn, appoints a vice president or proctor for each hall. It is the responsibility of these officers, six in number, to see that quiet is maintained during hours designed for study.

Every month the council has dinner together in Horton Dining Hall. After dinner the council holds a meeting at which time problems with which the council are concerned are discussed, and then the Student Council makes rules concerning changes proposed by the Vice Presidents' Council.

This is the second year for the Council, and it has proved to be a very important student governmental agency.

The Philhellenika Koinonia, or Philhellenic Society, was organized in 1929 to create and to cultivate more interest and greater appreciation for the culture of Greek civilization. Since then, for obvious reasons, it has assumed the name Phi Kappa. Membership is limited to those Greek students who have maintained a satisfactory academic standing.

Some of the papers presented this year included the subjects of "The Greeks at Sea" and "Greek Cities." The December meeting, a Christmas social gathering, was held at the home of Dr. A. William Ahl. The new members, Bergstresser, Hugus, Loss, Peters, and Wolfe, were formally initiated in January. Meetings are held in the Greek room on the first Tuesday of each month.

Susquehanna Theatre Guild

The Theatre Guild produced three one-act plays selected, directed, and contributed to, in time, effort, and properties by the student committee members—"Trysting Place," by Booth Tarkington, "Confessional," by Percival Wilde, and "Two Crooks and a Lady."

"Magnificent Obsession" was the annual fall production presented in December, as usual in Seibert Auditorium. "Curse You, Jack Dalton" and "He Ain't Done Right," by Nell, were chosen to compose the spring production given in April.

The long desired objective of realizing a campus branch of Alpha Psi Omega, the honor dramatic society, materialized this year in our Theta Phi chapter.

The Intramural Board, this year, has proved its worth by launching a well-organized and well-balanced program of which Coach A. A. Stagg, Jr., is supervisor.

In the early autumn, a touch football tournament was held, and during the winter months basketball held sway. A spring softball league proved extremely interesting.

Pre-Theological Club

The Pre-Theological Club is an organization for the students of Susquehanna who are preparing for the Gospel ministry. The meetings of the club are held once a month in Hassinger Hall. At this time topics and problems pertaining to the ministry are discussed, and leadership is encouraged in the members by having them conduct the meetings. Spiritual enrichment is also a vital part of the program. Prominent churchmen and faculty members are invited to speak at the meetings. The members of this club take an active part in college activities by planning and conducting many of the chapel programs, vesper services, and Student Christian Association meetings.

The Student Christian Association, whose purposes are to help the new students to become a part of the college, to continue church relationships, to establish friendships, and to help immediate moral and religious ideals, has been functioning superbly throughout the entire year. In addition to the regular weekly meetings, many special programs were under their supervision. The faculty reception for students, the Christmas program with its caroling, and the bringing to the school of such speakers as Rev. H. G. Stuempfle, Rev. Russel Crouse, Miss Mildred Winston, Rev. L. E. Bowers, Mrs. Dorothy T. Dyer, and Rev. Maurice Gortner—all of these were successful projects that give the Student Christian Association the distinction of being the center of campus activities.

THE 1944 LANTHORN

To Susquehanna this book comes as a presentation of the Class of 1944 with the hope that its contents may re-awaken many a memory and afford much pleasure now and in the years to come. Especially do we present it to those of our own class who have been called into our nation's service. Throughout the years may this LANTHORN serve to bind us as classmates.

The Susquehanna is the weekly student publication of the college, the medium through which student opinion is expressed and the news of Susquehannans on the campus and out in the world is recorded.

This year The Susquehanna has emphasized the effects of world conditions on our college life. Through the issues were traced the lowering of the draft age, Susquehanna University students joining the Reserves in November, and being called for active service in February, the selection of Susquehanna as a training base for aviation cadets, the defense stamps and bond drive, and the outstanding accomplishments of our alumni on the field of battle.

The Susquehanna is a member of the Intercollegiate Newspaper Association of the Middle Atlantic States and the National College Press Association.

Proctors' Committee

The Proctors' Committee is one of the younger organizations on the campus. It is composed of four members, three representing Hassinger Hall and one representing Selinsgrove Hall. These student proctors meet as necessity demands with a member of the faculty who acts as an adviser.

The purpose of this organization is to see that the men's dormitories are run in a satisfactory manner. Excellent results have guaranteed its position among the governmental bodies of the campus.

Symphonic Society

The Symphonic Society, directed by Mr. Elrose L. Allison, has a far-reaching effect on both participants and audience. It gives those who participate an opportunity to produce truly great music, for the repertoire is one of choice literature. It gives the audience an opportunity to add to its cultural background in music.

The climax of the symphonic season is the annual Spring Concert, featuring an eminent soloist. This season the soloist was the first clarinetist of the Montreal Symphony, Zenna Gemmalò. In past years the Symphonic Society has featured such artists as Dorothy Minty, violinist, and Bernard Greenhouse, cellist.

Although several members were called into the Service in the middle of the season, the concert was given, still upholding the high standards and fine musicianship which have always been characteristic.

University Band

Through its ever-increasing popularity, the Susquehanna Band has become well known throughout the region for its intricate drilling and showmanship. It has become an indispensable part of football games and other campus activities because of its excellent performance and the color and enthusiasm that it inspires.

The band is guided in routine by a capable director, and each year the musical technique of its members is displayed in the annual concert where the compositions of master composers are presented. This year's guest conductor, Richard Franko Goldman, was born in New York in 1910, and is the son of Edwin Franko Goldman. Mr. Goldman remains as associate conductor of the Goldman Band.

. . . a hardy rock garden to immortalize one of Susquehanna's two undefeated football teams.

★ ATHLETICS ★

1892

Crusaders of 1892—Pioneers of Fifty Fighting Football Teams.

YEARS OF FOOTBALL

Susquehanna University celebrated her Golden Anniversary of football—1892-1942—with a record of one win, one game tied, and four defeats. The 1942 Crusaders, a small but plucky contingent, gained a total of 1,313 yards through running and passing as against 1,579 for their opponents. Injuries again proved to be the jinx of the Orange and Maroon in this campaign which may have been the last until after the close of the war.

SUSQUEHANNA 0, UNIVERSITY OF BUFFALO 19

University Field

The Buffalo Bisons caught sight of the maroon jerseys of the Crusaders and raged to a 19 to 0 triumph. While her opponents were pushing across their markers in the first, second, and third quarters, Susquehanna could not capitalize on her scoring opportunities. A few bright spots, however, balanced the defeat. Jack Houser, senior transfer from Muhlenburg, showed the ability to aid greatly, and four freshmen, Meszaros, Taylor, Bolig, and Chalot, who broke into the lineup of the first game, further enhanced Susquehanna's prospects.

SUSQUEHANNA 6, HAVERFORD 27

Haverford

Haverford gained only seven more yards from scrimmage than Susquehanna and had only five more first downs, but even though Larry Isaacs played one of the greatest games of his career and made a sensational 50-yard run, and though freshman Burliegh Peters made a twisting touchdown dash, Susquehanna went down to a 27-6 defeat. All of the Fords' four scores came as a result of long plays—one on a pass and the other three on runs. It was all Isaacs for Susquehanna.

SUSQUEHANNA 12, JUNIATA 22

Huntington

If this game could have ended at the half, Susquehanna would have come home victorious, but a fateful second half proved the downfall of the Crusaders. Within the first five minutes the Stagmen made their first score. Isaacs passed to Meszaros, and then on the next play, freshman Evan Zlock plunged over for the score. Susquehanna's next tally came in the second period when Isaacs tossed to Chalot in the end zone.

Three linemen, Kemberling, Bradford, and Alessi, proved to be the mainstay for the Crusaders. Again this year, Mickey Leeper was outstanding for the Indians.

SUSQUEHANNA 6, CITY COLLEGE OF NEW YORK 0

New York City

The Crusaders smashed to a well deserved first victory in Lewisohn Stadium on Saturday, October 24. Although the score was not impressive, the game was all Susquehanna's. Co-captain Larry Isaacs romped 50 yards to give the Orange and Maroon her only score. Nearly the entire game was played in City College territory, but the Crusaders could not capitalize on three other scoring opportunities. While Susquehanna was amassing 366 yards on land and in the air, the Beavers were only mustering 120. Until he was injured in the third quarter, it was Houser who proved to be the outstanding player on the field; however, the Crusader line played a brilliant defensive game.

SUSQUEHANNA 13, JOHNS HOPKINS 13

University Field

In the Founder's-Parents'-Alumni Day game, Susquehanna fought desperately in the last quarter to draw a 13-13 tie with a stubborn Johns Hopkins University aggregation. The first pointer came in the first quarter on a beautiful pass to Meszaros who went over standing up. Then followed a determined drive by the Bluejays for six points which ended the scoring until the third quarter. Then Johns Hopkins started another sustained march that finally culminated in a score plus the extra point. In the final period, the Crusaders "opened up." Houser made several brilliant runs that set up the stage for the touchdown pass from Isaacs to Peters, who wormed his way through several opponents for the score. Houser came through with a place kick that sailed directly through the up-rights.

SUSQUEHANNA 0, DREXEL 19

Philadelphia

Drexel tasted victory for the first time this season, at the expense of the Crusaders, and defeated Susquehanna by the same score in which the season had opened against Buffalo, 19-0. The Orange and Maroon battled gallantly in this the last game, but she was at no time able to reach pay dirt. Tech outrushed Susquehanna 285 yards to 173. The first Drexel score came as a result of a 50-yard run in the first period, and the other two in the final quarter from a touchdown pass and a 60-yard run. This game ended the collegiate gridiron careers of the following seniors: Co-captains John Zuback and Larry Isaacs, Jim Hall, Jack Houser, Sid Kemberling, Ed Miller, Ken Klinger, Rex Sunday, and Jack Walsh.

Susquehanna experienced the most successful basketball season in her history during the 1942-43 season, emerging victorious in eleven of her sixteen contests. Although Coach A. A. Stagg, Jr., lost four men in mid-season, he developed a well-oiled combination that rang up a total of 602 points as against 538 points for opposing quintets.

While the Varsity was proving its mettle, the Susquehanna Junior Varsity, under the guiding hand of Coach Vernon Blough, was effecting an impressive record of fourteen wins and one defeat.

Susquehanna opened the season on the Alumni Gymnasium hardwoods by eking out 33-30 triumph over a strong Hershey Junior College team. Trailing 15-9 at the end of the first half, the Crusaders opened up in the second half to vanquish their opponents by a narrow margin. Although the team was ragged, the starting five of Isaacs, Janson, Captain Walsh, Bagatini, and Houser pointed to a good season. Janson gathered 19 for the Staggmenn.

Traveling to State College, the Crusaders received their first setback of the season when they absorbed a 58-28 lacing from Penn State. Susquehanna could do little against the 6' 3" lads from State, but Janson and Bagatini managed to net 20 points between them.

Playing superb ball, the Crusaders soundly trounced Haverford, 42-30. Taking the lead in the first period, Susquehanna never relinquished it throughout the game. The team, paced by Center Bill Janson with 16 points, showed great improvement over previous games.

Susquehanna played the third game in four days and fought an uphill battle to snatch her second straight victory from Swarthmore. Swarthmore held the advantage over the Orange and Maroon until the closing minutes of the last quarter. Then Houser made two fouls and sank a beautiful one handed stab from near the sidelines to give Susquehanna the victory, 29-24.

Gettysburg Seminary, with two of Susquehanna's stars of past years, Eugene Smith and Bob Fisher, journeyed to Alumni Gym where they were handed a 41-21 defeat at the hands of a smooth functioning Crusader team which ran its wins to three straight. Janson garnered 11 for the victors.

Susquehanna's three-game winning streak was snapped by the Drexel Dragons in Philadelphia when a last quarter let-down paved the way to defeat, 32-26. After commanding the play throughout the game, the Crusaders gave the offensive to the Dragons who swished the cords for 15 points while Susquehanna was held scoreless. Larry Isaacs accounted for 10 Susquehanna points.

After a slow start, the Orange and Maroon gained momentum and completely crushed an Elizabethtown five, 39-21, in Alumni Gym. The smooth play, teamwork, and speed of the Crusaders completely subjugated their opponents throughout the game. Isaacs led the Susquehannans with 12 points.

The Crusaders, anxious for victory against their traditional rivals from up the Susquehanna, Bucknell University, fought valiantly, but could not match the Union County five, and went down to defeat, 39-25. Janson copped high honors for Susquehanna with 11 markers.

The finest game played in Alumni Gymnasium this season was the 48-37 defeat of the Juniata Indians. With the score 21-13 against them at the half, the Crusaders, in an inspired third quarter, put 19 points through the net to give them the lead, a margin which they never relinquished. Bill Janson was in top form as he put through 16 points for Susquehanna.

Still running wild from the Juniata victory, the Crusaders completely routed the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, 62-25, in Alumni Gym to give their seventh win of the season. Dominating the play throughout the evening, Susquehanna was led by the superb shooting of Houser with 20 points.

The Crusaders, in a roughly contested game, subdued the Northeastern Penitentiary quintet on the Penitentiary court.

52-35. After a close first half, the Orange and Maroon broke loose in the second half paced by Janson with 22 markers.

Susquehanna, her offensive play equalling her brilliant defensive work, "ack-acked" the Naval Cadets of Franklin and Marshall to defeat, 34-20, on the home floor. The deadly shooting of Janson accounted for 12 of the Staggs-men's points.

Traveling to Elizabethtown, to play the return game with the E-towners, the Orange and Maroon came through 50-38. At no time seriously threatened, the Crusaders were paced by Janson with 16 points.

A strong Dickinson Junior College quintet proved a stubborn foe for Susquehanna to subdue, but the Crusaders, a new team after the half, broke loose to win their sixth straight game. When the last gun was fired in Alumni Gym, Susquehanna was on top 37-31. Jack Houser was high man for the Crusaders with 14 points.

In the last home game in the basketball careers of Captain Jack Walsh, Jack Houser, and John Wolfe, Susquehanna relaxed her defense in the third period to allow Wagner to gain a six-point advantage and the game. The setback, 45-42, was the first loss of the season on the home floor. Jack Houser was the big gun for the Crusaders with 18 points.

The Crusaders closed their hardwood season in a disastrous manner when they went down in defeat to Juniata, 48-23, on the Huntington floor. Janson paced the Crusaders with 8 points.

So ended the season, eleven victories and five defeats—a brilliant record for the Susquehanna cagers.

The Women's Athletic Association is an organization that was created for the women of Susquehanna University to promote interest in women's athletics and to obtain a spirit of fine sportsmanship. Any girl may be eligible for membership in W. A. A. after she has taken part in various class games and has obtained at least two hundred and fifty points. In order to retain her membership, she must earn at least two hundred additional points every year thereafter. The girls hold a monthly business meeting and conduct special activities during the year. The membership of the W. A. A. is composed of girls from every class who have reached the qualifications and have as their aim—true sportsmanship in play.

Women's Sports

Susquehanna University gives much attention to women's sports as one of the main extracurricular activities for the girls. Hockey, soccer, volleyball, basketball, and baseball are the main sports played. Hockey is perhaps the most popular among the girls. Each year a day is set aside which is known as "Play-day" when the girls of Cedar Crest College, Lebanon Valley College, and Susquehanna meet to engage in friendly competition. This year the hockey "Play-day" was held at Lebanon Valley, and was the only "Playday" that was held during the year because of transportation conditions, which have not hindered the women's sports on campus but have created a greater rivalry between classes.
